Dear Students,

It has been observed from quite a few days that, some of the students are spending their valuable time by chit-chatting in groups in Food court during college hours. Also, it was brought to the notice of the undersigned that few students are behaving indecently in the food court without any dignity and decorum and also passing derogatory comments on other individuals. RGUKT, Nuzvid campus students are well known for their self-discipline, studious and hardworking nature. But, your indecent behavior in the food court is damaging, undermining and tarnishing the image and reputation of the institute. Please remember that food court/canteen is provisioned in the campus to fill out your hunger and to refresh but not for group gatherings, bunking the classes and chit-chatting. Hence it is hereby instructed to not to spend your valuable time by mere chatting in the food court/canteen especially during college hours. Any misconduct or indecent behavior in the food court/canteen will be viewed very seriously and the student (s) concerned will be liable for disciplinary action commensurate with the nature and gravity of such misconduct.
